

Association of Residence Halls
Hall Council Executive Board Positions
ARH Representative

What are my duties as ARH Rep?

Oh man, you have arguably the most important position on the Hall Council. Your duties are as follows:

- To attend Hall Council Exec., Hall Council General Assemblies, ARH General Assemblies, and others meetings when called upon.
- To keep and maintain an open line of communication between the respective Hall Council and ARH as well as the residents of your building.
- To attend weekly constituency hours.
- To participate in the planning, conduction, and organization of ARH events (at least 2 a semester of your choice).
- To vote in both Hall Council and ARH.

Wow, that seems like a time commitment. Can I handle this?

Pending what your situation is like for the year you never know. But we won't lie to you—it is a time commitment, but it does become very rewarding. You are part of an organization that oversees Food Services, Housing, Residential Life, and the Student Judicial System. We are quick to act, easy to love, and...easy to love. There is a future in ARH as many Exec. Members can attest to. If you want a position with serious upward mobility, this is the position for you.

ARH is part of a much larger system known as the Illinois Residence Hall Association (IRHA) and we attend an annual leadership conference. IRHA is also part of a regional chapter (GLACURH) that feeds into the national leviathan (NACURH). As you see—room to grow.

All questions can be answered and I don't blame you for having many. You may inquire with the lovely duet above of President Jamie Neville (jneville@bradley.edu) or Vice-President Sean T. Madden (smadden@bradley.edu).
