

ARH General Assembly
March 11th, 2009

1) Nick F's Joke

Q: What kind of pants does Super Mario wear?

A: Denim Denim Denim

2) Spring Break Plans

Also, what's the luckiest thing that's ever happened to you?
Jackie has a ham sandwich story

3) Building Reports

Harper Wyckoff

Harper Wyckoff Idol: Over 100, Record Breaking
Lasted over an hour, two intermissions

Geisert

Pajama Night – 41 people

Heitz

Last Week: Roommate Game – 50 people
Last Week: Heitz Idol
Sunday: S.S.Heitz, Salsa, Sombreros
Next Week: Going to China

Uhall

Uhall Idol – 120 people

Williams

Williams Idol – 70 people from Williams, Lots from other buildings

4) Bradley Idol

See Appendix Below

Wednesday March 25th

Monday – Contestants Meeting

Reps – Verify that the winners got the email

Reps and Board – Be there at 6:15PM, Dress Nicely

Audience Choice – Bins will be placed outside, Person who raises the most money will win "Audience Choice"

Immediately Following – Ice Cream at One World

5) Hall Council Tonight

Appendix – Bradley Idol

Wednesday March 25th

Before 6:15 pm Tech Crew sets up in the ballroom

6:15 pm ARH Board arrives. Dress business casual (shirt and tie).

Contestants arrive. Individual sound check begins. Each contestant will be allowed to sing on stage for a few seconds to test the acoustic levels. ARH Board should be ensuring that all chairs and tables are set up and technology is working. In addition, the presentation should be loaded on the computer as early as possible. Buckets need to be placed outside for the Ghana Kids fundraiser. Tickets should be unraveled and ready to go.

6:45 pm Judges arrive. Let the crowd in. Have tickets and programs ready for distribution

7:00 pm Lights dim and we go! American Idol music plays, slideshow goes, Dan goes on stage to explain the rules and introduce the judges.

7:05 pm Contestants follow order of appearances. Someone will need to man the technology to ensure that the presentation matches the actual show.

7:15 pm Someone begins to count the money for the Audience Choice Award.

8:30 pm All contestants have sang, now judges go to meeting room 213 to discuss the winner. On the Rocks sings until the judges are finished deliberating. Someone will direct the judges to the room and wait outside for their decisions. They will then take their decisions and write them on a sheet of paper and give it to Dan.

8:40 pm All contestants are asked to stand on stage. Dan will announce the winners in order of: Audience Choice Award, 3rd Place, 2nd Place, and 1st Place. Then the show is over!

Clean Up: Chairs will NOT need to be moved. Essentially there should not be a ton of clean up. No one leaves until the job is done.